

WATERCOLOR WORKSHOPS

with

Diego Larguia

Diego Larguia is a New Orleans multifaceted artist and teacher. Working in watercolor and oils he has exhibited his work in galleries and museums. He has also taught art for more than 30 years, including at the New Orleans Academy of Fine Arts (20 years), The Ogden Museum, The Beauregard Keyes House and the New Orleans School of Arts and Crafts. His works have been featured in American Artist magazine and several other art publications. He is currently represented by Gallery 600 Julia in New Orleans and is a board member of the Louisiana Watercolor Society. Presented here are samples of his work, more can be seen on his website.

Diego will provide a reference image and do a full painting demonstration while covering many different watercolor painting topics such as drawing, materials and painting techniques. Participants will then do their own painting. This will be followed by a short critique of the finished works.
